

Successful Answer – Full Marks

Birmingham gives the impression that kite flying is exciting to watch because he describes the kits flying as an “awesome spectacle” which engaged himself and his children. ✓ He also gives the impression that it is a popular activity because “a local kite flying festival was being held” and as the picture and his list of animal style kites shows this a popular event. ✓ He describes lots of ✓ f extravagant kites which gives the impression that some people take it very seriously. ✓

He also gives the impression that anyone can enjoy kite flying because he is desperate to help his children enjoy the fun. ✓ He gives the impression that it is a simple activity because someone as young as three can do it with help. ✓ He also gives the impression that many people don't realise how much fun it is as he had a “Kiteless childhood” and asks the question